2 July 1962

MEMORANDUM FOR: Colonel Stanley W. Beerli
Assistant Director for Special Activities

ATTENTION: Security Branch

SUBJECT: Security Clearances

25X1 1. Colonel [redacted] who has been the Deputy Executive Secretary of the United States Intelligence Board (USIB), is in the process of reassignment to another post. As a result, I am the only person on the USIB Executive Secretariat who has the 25X1 security clearances for [redacted] This situation means that, in handling USIB matters requiring these clearances, I currently do not have any Secretariat assistance nor is there anyone able to act for me as Executive Secretary in my absence.

25X1 2. Mr. [redacted] Assistant Executive Secretary of the USIB, is presently acting as Deputy Executive Secretary, pending a replace- 25X1 ment for Colonel [redacted] Therefore, Mr. [redacted] who already has a 25X1
TKH security clearance, would be the appropriate member of the USIB Secretariat to assist and act for me in handling Board matters 25X1 requiring [redacted] clearances. Even when a replacement for 25X1 Colonel [redacted] has been chosen, it would continue to be very 25X1 desirable that Mr. [redacted] have these additional clearances since his regular duties as Assistant Executive Secretary involve the initial preparation of papers, agenda and minutes for the USIB as well as assisting in the arrangements for Board meetings.

3. Accordingly, I request your assistance in obtaining security 25X1 clearances [redacted] for Mr. [redacted] who is a CIA employee 25X1 assigned to the USIB Executive Secretariat in the Office of the Director of Central Intelligence.

4. I should explain that I am making this request in my capacity as Executive Secretary of the USIB, and not as the Deputy Assistant for Coordination. The members of the Coordination Staff who have the above requested clearances are under the direction of General 25X1 [redacted] as AC/DCI, and are not a part of the USIB Secretariat.
